21st Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go?
You have the words of eternal life." - Jn 6:68

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus then said to the Twelve," Do you also want to leave?"
Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God. John 6:60 69

Last week we celebrated the solemnity of the assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Because of this day we read special readings. We did not read from the gospel of John where Jesus continues to speak about his identity as the living bread from heaven. The bread we receive is his flesh for the life of the world. In receiving the flesh and blood of Jesus, the Son of Man, we are given eternal life. Jesus is not like the bread that our ancestors ate in the desert which temporarily filled our hunger. This proclamation from John 6:51 58, is the background for what we hear in today's gospel reading. You may want to read this gospel selection to appreciate today's reading.

Jesus' disciples are at a crossroad. Some will continue to follow Jesus and some will leave the journey. They will leave because this saying of eating his flesh and blood is part of what is hard to understand. The idea of eating flesh and blood is disturbing to some. Perhaps outside of the Eucharist this experience of being nourished by his flesh and blood does not make sense. Jesus focuses on the Spirit that gives life and understanding. It is the Spirit that helps us to understand how we are nourished by his body and blood, to be led by God who calls us to the Divine self and through Jesus, to find strength in Jesus and to recognize him as the bread of life. The Spirit leads us to eternal life. The Spirit connects us to recognizing our nourishment in Jesus' body and blood.

Peter's response to Jesus is captivating: we believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God. There is no where we could go to receive eternal life without you and your words. The Eucharist sustains us and keeps us close to Jesus. The Eucharist is very important to us as we seek to be led by Jesus. Being led by others is not easy. Are we willing to be led by Jesus who walks with us and in present with us, especially in the breaking of the bread. This week how will the Eucharist lead us to stay close to Jesus and live a God way of life.

Peace Fr Richard

Duodécimo-Primer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Entonces Jesús les dijo a los Doce: "¿También ustedes quieren dejarme?" Simón Pedro le respondió: Señor, ¿a quien iremos? Tu tienes palabras de vida eterna; y nosotros creemos y sabemos que tu eres el Santo de Dio"

La semana pasada celebramos la solemnidad de la asunción de la Santísima Virgen María. Debido a este día leemos lecturas especiales. No leímos del evangelio de Juan donde Jesús continúa hablando de su identidad como el pan vivo del cielo. El pan que recibimos es su carne para la vida del mundo. Al recibir la carne y la sangre de Jesús, el Hijo del Hombre, se nos da la vida eterna. Jesús no es como el pan que comieron nuestros antepasados en el desierto y que temporalmente llenó nuestra hambre. Esta proclamación de Juan 6:51 58, es el trasfondo de lo que escuchamos en la lectura del evangelio de hoy. Si lo desea, lea esta selección de evangelios para apreciar la lectura de hoy.

Los discípulos de Jesús se encuentran en una encrucijada. Algunos continuarán siguiendo a Jesús y algunos dejarán el camino. Se irán porque este dicho de comer su carne y sangre es parte de lo que es difícil de entender. La idea de comer carne y sangre es inquietante para algunos. Quizás fuera de la Eucaristía esta experiencia de ser alimentado por su carne y sangre no tenga sentido. Jesús se enfoca en el Espíritu que da vida y entendimiento. Es el Espíritu el que nos ayuda a comprender cómo nos alimenta su cuerpo y su sangre, a ser guiados por Dios que nos llama al yo divino y a través de Jesús, a encontrar la fuerza en Jesús y a reconocerlo como el pan de vida. El Espíritu nos conduce a la vida eterna. El Espíritu nos conecta para reconocer nuestro alimento en el cuerpo y la sangre de Jesús.

La respuesta de Pedro a Jesús es cautivadora: creemos y estamos convencidos de que Tú eres el Santo de Dios. No hay ningún lugar al que podamos ir para recibir la vida eterna sin ti y tus palabras. La Eucaristía nos sostiene y nos mantiene cerca de Jesús. La Eucaristía es muy importante para nosotros mientras buscamos ser guiados por Jesús. Ser dirigido por otros no es fácil. ¿Estamos dispuestos a ser guiados por Jesús que camina con nosotros y está presente con nosotros, especialmente en la partida del pan? Esta semana, ¿cómo nos llevará la Eucaristía a permanecer cerca de Jesús y vivir una forma de vida de Dios?

Paz, Padre Richard

St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Parish Mission Statement

The Catholic people of St. Catherine of Siena Parish, in union with the diocese of San Bernardino, are called in prayer, by the power of the Holy Spirit to:

- Evangelize the Good News of Jesus Christ;
- Meet the needs of the community by stewardship;
- Discern and nurture one another's gifts by formation;
- Worship the Triune God by the liturgical celebrations of the Sacraments.

And thus reach the Kingdom of God.

Declaración de la Misión Parroquial de Santa Catalina de Siena

La gente Católica de la parroquia de Santa Catalina de Siena, en unión con la diócesis de San Bernardino, es llamada por medio del Espíritu Santo y la oración a:

- Evangelizar la Buena Nueva de Jesucristo;
- Comprometerse para hacer frente a las necesidades de la comunidad a través de corresponsabilidad;
- Discernir y promover los dones de cada uno por efecto de formación ministerial;
- Dar el culto a la Santísima Trinidad en la celebración litúrgica de los sacramentos;

Y de ese modo, alcanzar el Reino de Dios .
